OUR NEXT REPRESENTATIVE

DR. W. S. YAZELL

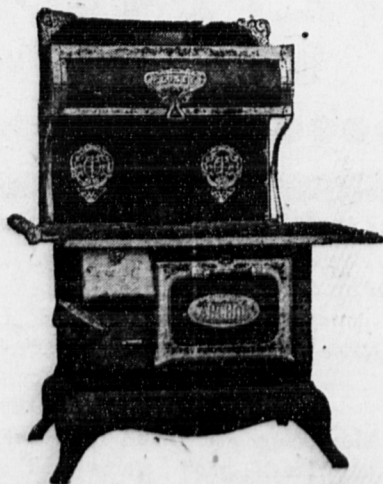

Dr. W. S. Yazell, the Republican candidate for Representative from Mason county, is one of the best known men in the entire county. He has practiced medicine in this county for quite a number of years and has been practicing his profession in every single precinct in the entire county so that he has become well acquainted with hundreds of people. For a number of years he was President of the Maysville Board of Education and had much to do with the handling of the board's affairs during the period in which Maysville's present beautiful school buildings were erected.

Dr. Yazell is one of the best qualified men who has been presented to the people of Mason county in many years as a candidate for this office. Not in a life time has a man of his ability sought this office. If sent to Frankfort as the representative of Mason county people he will be the kind of a Representative of whom we can well afford to feel proud. Because of his ability he will be selected for the most important committees.

A few nights ago a Democratic working man gave to Dr. Yazell's campaign a slogan when he remarked that no man in all of Mason county was more worthy to bear the slogan of "The Poor Man's Friend" than was Dr. Yazell. In his long practice in Maysville the doctor has never failed to answer a call in sickness no matter whether he saw compensation or not. He has always made his charges according to a man's pocket book and has thereby won to himself this title of being the Poor Man's Best Friend. Hundreds of his patients, regardless of party affiliation, have appreciated through these years his kindness. He has been the poor man's friend when the poor man worst needed a friend and the sort of a man who has been a poor man's friend in the practice of his profession will most certainly be the poor man's friend in the legislative halls of our state. These patients who have been befriended through these years will most certainly remember that display of friendship when they part the curtains in the voting booth.

The Man Who Has a Real Grudge against the League of Nations has been found. His objection is musical. He says for years he has been singing "My Country, 'Tis of Thee"; now he has to learn how to sing "Our Countries, 'Tis of Those."

We don't know how you stand on the question of the L. & N., but we do know how you stand on that cooking stove question; you want to get the best your money can buy, and say, folks, we have just got that very thing, the best stove made, the

STINSON AIR PILOTS ARRIVE IN MAYSVILLE AT NOON FOR FLIGHTS

Loop the Loop King of the World Heads Squadron Arriving Here Today For Short Stay—Local People Take Air Flights.

The Stinson fliers, of Dayton, Ohio, arrived in Maysville at noon and will spend two or three days here giving exhibitions over the city and county and carrying passengers into the clouds.

There are three Curtiss biplanes in the squadron piloted by Lieutenant Eddie Stinson, known as the Loop king of the world, Lieutenant Leroy Taylor and Lieutenant Young. The planes came here from Ashland this morning in about an hour and selected their own landing field at the brick yards from the air. It took Lieut. Stinson but one trip over the city to see that this was the best available landing field in this section. All three planes made good landings without accident and this afternoon have been scaring over the city.

Coleman Frank Turley, who, by the way, is no stranger in Maysville, is the business agent for the fliers. He arrived here Saturday night and has made all arrangements for them. Mr. Turley has extended invitations to Mayor Russell, County Judge Purnell, Chief of Police Ott and representatives of the press to take flights with the pilots.

While the planes are at the local landing field they will carry passengers for $15 for a straight flight and $25 for a "stunt" flight. Many will go to the landing field while the planes are here to inspect the big ships. The planes are all piloted by experienced fliers who have done duty in the air for Uncle Sam in France and the promoters say there is not much danger in taking the flights.

Mr. Harry Miles, of the Sphar Brick Company, was the first local man to take a trip in the planes. Chief of Police Harry A. Ott, was second and Miss Dorothy Hockaday, of the Daily Independent, was the first woman in the planes.

CHANCE FOR 3 BOYS TO GET IN BAND

Prof. J. W. Young, of the Maysville Boys' Band, announces that the band at present is in need of three clarinet players. The instruments are now here and the three boys making application first will be given an opportunity to "make" the band. See Prof. Young at the band room in the Caproni building at once.

PUTTING FARM BUREAU BUILDING IN CONDITION FOR ITS OCCUPANCY

Larry Langfelse, the plumber, has vacated the Western half of the Dodson building in Second street which will be occupied by the Mason County Farm Bureau and workmen have begun to decorate the interior of the building and get it in shape for occupancy. The bureau will occupy the building as soon as possible.

BAND MAKES GOOD AT PARIS

Our famous Boys' Band added another laurel to their crown on Sunday when they furnished music for a big Y. M. C. A. meeting at Paris. The band was called back many times and in the big rally over seven thousand dollars was raised for Y. M. C. A. work in Bourbon county and the state at large.

MISS EDITH GARDNER DEATH

Miss Edith Gardner, aged 26 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Gardner at the home of her parents at Rectorville Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock after a long illness never totally recovering from an attack of influenza last winter. Funeral Tuesday at 2 p. m. at Olivet church and burial will be made in the Olivet grave yard.

HIGH CROWD OF FARMERS WERE IN CITY TODAY

Maysville was well filled with farmers today and the chief topic of discussion on the streets was politics and the tobacco. The high river came in for a good share of the farmers' attention.

BALLOT BOXES GO OUT

Balloon boxes for Tuesday's election are being sent out to the clerks of the election in the various precincts today by County Clerk James Owens so as to be ready for the opening of the poles Tuesday morning.

A big run of logs is expected down the Ohio river this afternoon. Rivermen have been notified and many are planning to catch some of the logs. Several local river men gathered quite a bit of corn from shocks which have been floating down the river in goodly numbers since Sunday morning.

LOCKJAW CAUSED DEATH OF MURPHYSVILLE MAN

Alsworth Gault, Who Shot Self Accidentally a Week Ago, Died From Lockjaw After Intense Pain For Several Days.

Alsworth Gault, aged 19 years, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Gault, died at the home of his parents in the Murphysville neighborhood Saturday of lockjaw which developed in a wound accidentally inflicted while hunting about a week ago.

While hunting young Gault accidentally inflicted a small wound in his body. The wound was not thought a serious one until blood poisoning developed and this was followed by lockjaw. For several days he suffered unknown agonies and death Saturday brought relief. The young man was an unusually popular man in that section of the county and had many friends here who are grieved to hear of his sad death.

Funeral was held from the late home at 2 o'clock this afternoon and burial was made at Shannon.

BANK PUMP COVERED BY WATER; ENGINE ORDERED

The large bank pump at the Maysville Water Company's pumping station which has been used to force the most of the water to the reservoir, has been covered by the rapidly rising Ohio river and there is much apprehension that the city will again face a water famine and be unable to fight a serious fire should it come now. To care for this situation Maysville's mayor has ordered a fire engine shipped here from Covington, Ky., to be used in case of an emergency. The two engines which were here from Cincinnati were just returned to that city last week and were hardly back home until their need was felt here.

WAREHOUSEMEN BUSY ON LOCAL STREETS TODAY

Although politics was rather warm on the streets here today the politicians were not a bit busier than were the tobacco warehousemen. As the tobacco season is now drawing near, the warehousemen and their representatives are quite busy presenting the good virtues of their houses. There will be considerable riding over the county just as soon as the date of the opening of the local warehouse is fixed at Tuesday night's meeting of the Tobacco Association.

LAST FULL MEETING OF OLD CITY COUNCIL TONIGHT

The last full meeting of the old City Council will be held this evening at the Council Chamber. The December meeting is always turned over to the new council after the old council has paid off all their debts and straightened out all of their matters of business. It is therefore expected that tonight's meeting will be a rather important one. The one big question coming before the councilmen will be the water company's filtration proposition.

VOTERS BEWARE

Mason county voters should beware of any eleventh hour reports put into circulation by politicians so late that they cannot be denied before the election. Remember that some politicians would do most anything to carry an election and do not be misled by any false reports that could not bear the light of a campaign and are kept hid in the dark the day before the election or even election day. The campaign is over. Do the right thing.

BABY WELLS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wells, of Front street, are the proud parents of a fine baby girl who was born to them Sunday morning.

PROMINENT BUSINESS MEN IN CAST OF THE WOMANLESS WEDDING

Home Talent Show to Be Given On Next Friday Evening For the Benefit of the City Mission Will Be Some Fun Provoker.

That the "Womanless Wedding" which will be given at the Washington Opera House on next Friday evening for the benefit of the City Mission's work among the poor of the city will be one of the greatest success of any of the many home talent shows produced in Maysville, is assured by the cast of characters made public by the management this morning.

Some of the city's most prominent business men will be seen on the platform as flower girls, etc., in this wonderful womanless wedding. The first rehearsal will be given at the High School auditorium this evening at 7 o'clock and a full attendance of those business men is expected.

As this entertainment is entirely for the benefit of the poor of Maysville, it is certain that the Opera House will be well filled.

The business men thus far agreeing to take part in the show follow:

George Dodson, S. Arn, Will Weis, Brownie Arn, Mike Brown, Andy Diener, R. G. Knox, Maurice Kirk, Dr. J. H. Hutchings, John Kinsler, Eugene McCarthy, Bill Geisel, George H. Frank, Gerald Murphy, William Murphy, Sam H. McNutt, Charles Rosensteel, Harry Markwell, William Traxel, Joe Newell, William Stockton, Geo. W. Royce, John Hunt, Albert Day, Jno. Burwell, Frank Clarke, T. A. Keith, Buddy January, John Mathews, A. G. Watson, Dr. Kramer, Rees Kirk, Ed Geisel, C. S. Kirk, Nace Brady, R. L. Hoefflich, B. G. Marsh, E. Watkins, Jas. Finch, George Devine, Charles Hopper, Clarence Mathews.

BOTTOM FARMERS MOVING CORN FROM HIGH RIVER

River and creek bottom farmers were working hard most of the day Sunday and are still working to remove all of their bottom corn to a place of safety from the rapidly rising Ohio and its tributaries. Thus far little corn has been caught by the river for the crop is not a normal one and the farmers are guarding what they have very carefully.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet with Mrs. Caroline Russell on East Third street Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

OUR NEXT GOVERNOR

EDWIN P. MORROW

A vote for Edwin P. Morrow for Governor at Tuesday's election will be a repudiation of the system of rotation in office which has marked affairs political in the state of Kentucky for several years. Folks have reached the stage in Kentucky politics when they desire to see a change. The Stanley-Black administration of this state during the past four years has been one of the most unpopular administrations Kentucky has ever had and folks want a change. To get this change vote the straight Republican ticket on Tuesday.

Edwin P. Morrow is as well qualified for the office of Governor of our great commonwealth as any man who has been offered for that office in years. He has plainly stated his case to the people of the state and his platform and will keep those party pledges. He is pledged to a just revision of the tax laws, school improvements and the removal of school management from politics. He has already named a Board of Control he will appoint if elected which will not be guilty of any such graft scandals as the Armstrong case which stirred the state from center to circumference last week.

If you want fair taxation, better schools, reasonable school book prices and a high-class non-political Board of Control, vote the straight Republican ticket on Tuesday. Elect Ed Morrow and root out the rotators.

PREPARING FOR "WIN MY CHUM" WEEK AT METHODIST CHURCH
The "Win-My-Chum" week, is always a great series of services held each year at the Third Street M. E. Church, will be held within a very short time and the officials of the Epworth League are now planning their program for that week. Some of our strongest laymen and ministers will be asked to take part in the program.

"WHEN BEARCAT WENT DRY" THRILLS EVERYONE
Everyone who saw "When Bearcat Went Dry" at the Pastime this afternoon, pronounce it to be, one of the most thrilling pictures that was ever shown in Maysville. It is a stirring tale of life in the mountains of old Kentucky. Tonight is positively your last chance to see this wonderful picture.

"GO, LITTLE BOOK—"

There are books of which it used to be said that no gentleman's library should be without them. The cheerful little effort that ornaments our desk is not of that character.

And there are books that add to the gaiety of nations. Innocently, and in spite of itself, this same inspired production belongs to the rather in that class. It had been our intention to deal with it earlier. But this is a week dedicated to the language as she is spoken and it has seemed to us fitting that the example before us should come under that heading, for, in spite of its quasi-scientific claims, it is most enjoyable—and most profitable, besides—by way of textbook in composition, construction and just plain workaday grammar.

Quite apart from these distinctions, however, "Health and Sanitation Through the Public Schools of Kentucky," its authors W. L. Heizer, M. D., not unknown to fame, and Mrs. V. O. Gilbert, makes this peculiar appeal. It is at once a first-rate campaign document for the Republicans and one of the few of the Democratic achievements to which that much-bedecked party points with pride. If it causes such hearty, whole-souled merriments as is in itself a life-saver, we shall have shown that it fulfills its mission.

Since the days when first that recipe was given out that begins with the well-known injunction: "First catch your hare," there has been nothing to compete with this brochure for artlessness and an appealing—almost a shrinking ingenuousness. Modestly enough it purports to be compounded of wisdom and the best advice obtainable and the satisfaction it gives may be measured by the fact that it cost some fifteen thousand dollars of the State's good money to put it into gratuitous circulation where it might do the most good. At that, joint-author Gilbert himself is willing to allow that the money was well spent and that the benefits accruing from its use are not to be, and can not be, measured in terms of mere dollars and cents.

"This little boy has the toothache bad"—what Dr. Heizer means is clear enough, isn't it, and who gives a continental about grammar when toothache punctuates his speech? When he tells us that punctures is a common condition among children who go barefoot and that, when the offending agent is oftentimes about a barn-lot, danger increases though the construction be involved, the meaning is plain. But, when we find the toothpick so frequently recommended as a surgical instrument we begin to have doubts and when at length it appears in the treatment prescribed for snake-bite we grow suspicious. Whiskey, says our authority, is to be avoided "and many times the patient has been found to be in a drunken condition—much worse as a result of the alcohol than could have been as a result of the snake bite." As that, the copper still will continue to be more highly regarded than the copper head, even in the exemplary Commonwealth of Kentucky.

The State, we are told, provides education and makes it compulsory. What kind of education, we wonder, is conveyed, free gratis and for nothing, to the young people of Kentucky that exhorts them that music that excites is to be avoided—"jazz," we take it, is allowed; that an active correspondence with friends or relatives is not wise, and that bars games, such as whist or poker, that require concentration and promote excitement.

Is it really urgent—is it so much as necessary—that the taxpayer should spread information as to how to mash turnips and boil cabbage? "When the cabbage has been boiled and is ready to dish, it could be eaten with cream sauce. For this the cabbage should be cut in very small pieces before boiling."

"Go, little book, and do your worst"—somewhere that dedication may be found. We would not apply it here, but we beg leave to add a verse to the Read with which this booklet closes:

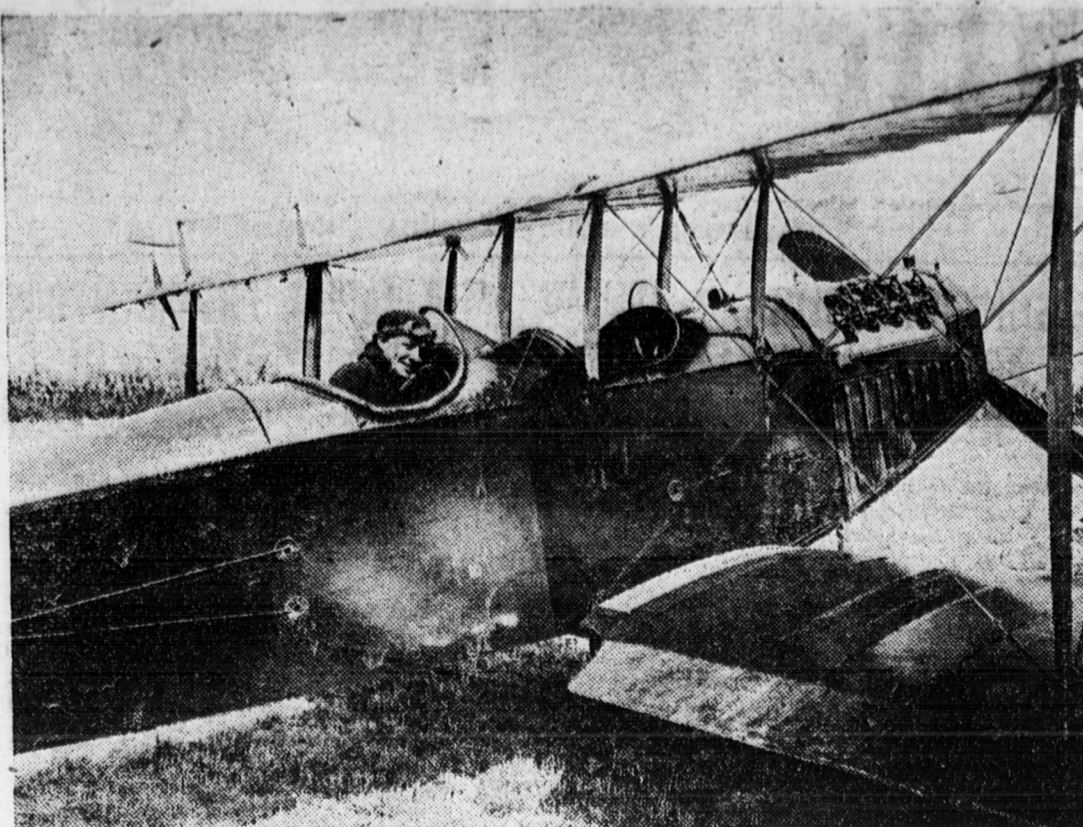

Go, little book, the secrets tell
Of how to bile and how to jell—
You could not be the least bit wiser
If ev'ry word were writ by Heizer.

HOW TO STOP THIS

With the Democrats at Frankfort sticking their greedy hand into the public treasury, the printing presses have been running night and day at tremendous cost to the taxpayers. During the three year of Gov. Willson's (Republican) administration, the State's public printing and binding bill was $114,662.21, an average of $38,220 per year. During the three years of the McCreary (Democratic) administration, this bill more than doubled. During the Stanley (Democratic) administration, the bill was almost three times as much.

I'M PUZZLED

By Jud Parker.

I ain't no wise gazabo, and I don't pretend to know
Jest how the universe is made, er what 't makes it go.
Of course this League o' Nations 's got me stopped I will admit,
But lots of other fellers haven't figured it out yet.
And of course I am concedin' that Shantung job looks to me
Like ordinary stealin', though perhaps it may not be.
International relations ain't exactly in my line,
And dealin' with relations 's always ticklish I find.
But while I'm not what 's called a sage nor yet am I a fool
What's plain to other people I can see through as a rule.
But I'm clear kerflabergasted when I stop an' look aroun'
At things 'ats tolerated right here in our own home town.
Now, we may be old fashioned and not citified I s'pose
An' the big berg up the River 's use to turnin' up her nose.
But at least we think we're decent and respectable and clean
We're not usually given to what's dirty, low and mean.
But we're so darned inconsistent that in one respect at least
Our low down way o' livin' would jest nauseate a beast
I jest can't understand it, how that sech a thing could be
Ia may be all quite simple, but it's got the best of me.
Take a river like Niagara, jest as clean as it can be
Jest as uncontaminated as the great blue inland sea
And five hundred thousand people goes an' dumps into that stream
All the filth an' vile pollution that with dread diseases teem.
But that's not the thing that stumps me. That's comparatively plain.
The remainder of the story is the part I can't explain.
Dumplin' all of that pollution in the stream is bad enough
But to think that them as knows it yet will calmly drink the stuff!

Laboring men are beginning to suspect that they have been drawn into a trap and betrayed by the President, at least in effect. With the labor group composed of its own representatives, an equal number of employers representing that group, and with the group representing the public made up almost entirely of employers also appointed by Mr. Wilson, the wave earners have been blocked at every turn at the National Conference held at the National Capital. Even such wholesome remedies as proposed by the War Labor Board for the guidance of both sides in industry have been too radical for acceptance.

FINE VEHICLE IS VIVIAN MARTIN'S NEW PHOTOPLAY

"You Never Saw Such a Girl" Has Excellent Story Based on Popular Novel.

That Vivian Martin, the popular Paramount star, has an exceptional vehicle in "You Never Saw Such a Girl," her latest picture, is conceded by all who have seen the picture. The story is by George Weston, and was published in book form under the title "The Kingdom of Heart's Desire." Marion Fairfax adapted it to the screen as "You Never Saw Such a Girl." Robert G. Vignola, with his usual directorial skill, put it into film form. It will be shown at the Washington Tuesday.

The general idea of the story is the presentation of a resourceful young girl who works her way out of a difficult situation. But the story itself is delightfully whimsical and full of comedy, but even more so, of love and romantic adventure.

The general idea of the story is the presentation of a resourceful young girl who works her way out of a difficult situation. But the story itself is delightfully whimsical and full of comedy, but even more so, of love and romantic adventure.

Vivian Martin is cast as Mary Mackenzie, a young girl who is left parentless with an old farming couple—brother and sister. These protectors die when she is just budding into womanhood and she takes the old farm auto and with her only friend, an old maid schoolteacher, goes a-gypsying.

She is really searching for her grandmother. She doesn't find her but discovers instead, a fortune, and a sweetheart, while even the old maid obtains a husband.

The story is one having possibilities for all sorts of humor and charming situation. Miss Martin is said to have done some of the finest work of her career in this picture. She is supported by a fine cast, headed by Harrison Ford.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Sir Michael P. Cashin, whose administration is at stake in today's general election in Newfoundland, has been premier of the colony since the retirement of Sir Edward P. Morris at the beginning of 1918. Sir Michael, who is a Newfoundlander by birth and education, has been more than a quarter of a century in public service, and his career as a statesman has been a notable one. In 1893 he entered political life as a member of the legislature. Two years later he joined the Liberal party, but in 1905 he broke with that party, and led the Independent party in the legislature until 1908, when he joined with Sir Edward Morris. The following year he entered the cabinet as Minister of Finance and Customs. In the present election Sir Michael is opposed by a party headed by Hon. Richard Squires, former Attorney General, with whom is allied the Fishermen's Union party, an active factor in Newfoundland politics for some years.

Good telephone service depends not only upon the telephone equipment and the skill and intelligence of the telephone employees, but also upon the co-operation of the telephone USERS. It is the responsibility of the calling person to be sure to give the operator the right number, speaking slowly and distinctly.

The operator's responsibility is, in turn, to answer the caller's signal promptly and to give the desired connection quickly and accurately.

Still further, the called person co-operates towards good service BY ANSWERING PROMPTLY; and each helps by speaking distinctly and by practicing courtesy and patience under all conditions.

If we all go to the polls on November 4th and place our vote under the Rooster. Let each Democrat do his duty.

The Clothing Situation

For men and boys is very acute and the tendency for higher prices continues. While merchants are running all over the country trying to secure modern merchandise, fortunately the us, we had the foresight and nerve to go into the market when conditions were more normal, thereby, securing first choice of patterns and materials, getting them into the house for display and sale at reasonable prices, for which the public seems duly grateful by the way they are buying of us. Every day finds new goods from early purchases coming in to fill up our depleted stocks. Even under these wonderful circumstances we would advise an early purchase of Suits, Underwear, Wool Shirts, Raincoats, Mackinaws, Sweaters, Hat and Men's Overcoats. Children's Overcoats are, however, very scarce at the present time but we have always had a few to show and in a few days will have a full and complete stock.

Two experienced men added to our sales force to care for our increasing business.

GOOD INCREASE SHOWN IN TWO SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Report of Sunday School Attendance at Local Schools Yesterday.

Sunday School Attendance Secretary J. H. Richardson, makes the following report of last Sunday's attendance:

CITY
Christian	184
Third Street M. E.	133
First Presbyterian	126
First Baptist	112
Sedden M. E.	80
"Little Brick" M. E., South	73
First M. E., South	63
Scott M. E. (col.)	60
Bethel Baptist (col.)	60
City Mission	49
Episcopal	10
COUNTY
Millcreek Christian	74
Maysleek Christian	60
Hillsdale	67
Dover Christian	62
Germantown M. E., South	49
Washington Presbyterian	31
Lewisburg Baptist	25

Two of our city Sunday schools show a good increase—the Christian and the City Mission. Some good work has been done. These increases are gratifying. But there should be more. If every school in city would put forth the effort they would reap the rewards in large attendance and much more satisfying work.

We are thinking of requesting the County Sunday School Association to offer a reward for a plan that will get the county schools to report their attendance. The person who can furnish the plan will surely receive the gratitude and commendation of all loyal Sunday School workers. Come along now with your plans.

"THE SMART SET"

America's foremost colored theatrical organization, "The Smarter Set" better known as "The Smart Set" has nothing to complain of these so-called panicky times which so many of the theatrical companies are complaining, as their business continues good since their opening, and the critics have remarked that this season's offering of "The Smarter Set" with Salem Tutt Whitney and J. Homer Tutt in the leading roles, is the best comedy in which they have appeared, while the company is larger and better than before, and will be the attraction at the Washington next Saturday night.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE IS URGED OVER KENTUCKY

Red Cross Stamp Finances Kentucky Tuberculosis Association, According to Campaign Director.

Louisville, Ky., November 2.—Sales of Red Cross Christmas seals finance in the main the work of the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association, Campaign Director Thweatt, in charge of the Christmas seals campaign in Kentucky, said Wednesday. Mr. Thweatt gave some facts in regard to the prevalence of tuberculosis in Kentucky and in the cities of the State that give an idea of how widespread the white plague is.

"Statistics shows" said Mr. Thweatt, "that Kentucky has the highest death rate from tuberculosis in both preventable and curable disease. Census figures tell us that one out of every seven persons in the United States dies every year and that ten per cent of these deaths are caused by tuberculosis. In Kentucky one died of every seven persons who died last year from this plague.

"Up to 1912 tuberculosis caused more deaths than any other disease but after that time, because of the work done by organizations formed to teach sanitation and prevention and the use of modern methods of fighting the plague and its spread, it dropped to third place in the list of fatal diseases. But heart disease and pneumonia, the leaders in the list, lead tuberculosis by only eight-tenths and five-tenths of one per cent respectively.

"There are about twenty-nine thousand nine hundred living cases of tuberculosis in Kentucky. Unless these patients are properly cared for or taught to care for themselves every active case may become the focus for five other cases. We are trying to stop the needless sacrifice of human lives by teaching the victims of this disease to practice the simple laws of sanitation in their homes, in public places and among their friends.

"In Louisville alone there are about three thousand cases of tuberculosis and last year there were five hundred deaths from the disease. We are trying to stop the ravages of the white plague in Kentucky and with the help of the generous citizens of the State this end ultimately will be achieved.

"Kentucky has never failed to respond to the calls for help through the Red Cross Christmas seals. We have no thought it will do so this year, but rather that it will give generously the willing gift of a generous and prosperous people to aid the unfortunate suffering a living death from a disease that can be cured if proper methods are followed.

VOTE YES!

Though we now have National Prohibition, our state of Kentucky has no laws to properly enforce it. Therefore every voter should vote "YES" on the State Prohibition Amendment which demands of the State Assembly the passing of proper enforcement laws. This Amendment is on a separate ballot.

This Prohibition movement is not a movement against tobacco as some would have you believe. The Kentucky Anti-Saloon League has repeatedly said it was not Anti-Tobacco but Anti-Saloon.

If you want Mason County dry in fact and if you want to have the National Prohibition enforced in Kentucky ask for a Prohibition Amendment ballot when you vote and make the cross besides the word "YES". There are two good amendments this year. Vote "YES" on both of them Tuesday.

MANY HEAR DR. HENNING

The large auditorium at the First Baptist church was well filled Sunday evening when Dr. B. C. EFFECTS OF INJUNCTION ARE BEING FELT

Court Order Leaves Nation-wide Walkout Leaderless—Many Ready to Return to Work.

Washington, November 3.—Reports from throughout the soft coal mine strike region indicate that the injunction against the national leaders of the union miners has given the Government a distinct advantage, which will be greatly increased when it is followed up this week by injunctions against State and district leaders.

While the leaders' figures, showing that more than 400,000 miners have gone on strike, are generally accepted, it is pointed out that thousands of these men, according to secret service reports, are willing to return to work under Government protection, and that when it becomes clear to them that such protection will be afforded they will do so in steadily increasing numbers.

FINED HEAVILY

William Albert, colored, was before Police Judge John L. Whitaker this afternoon on a charge of breach of the peace. The evidence showed that Albert while drunk had thrown stones against a house in Short street Saturday night and had been considerably disorderly. We was fined $31.

ILL AT LEXINGTON

Mr. Thomas Breen has been advised that his sister, Mrs. Roger Devine, and her daughter, Helen, are both ill at their home in Lexington with diphtheria. Their many local friends hope for their speedy recovery.

The Amendment to the Constitution of the United States makes every state dry. If the wets should win in Kentucky the State would still be dry. It is necessary to have the dry amendment to our Constitution adopted in order the legislature may make laws to enforce prohibition. Every one who wishes bootleggers convicted and the dry law enforced need to vote yes on the amendment.
